

Brown Bag Lunch: “The Hipster Overlay District”

KZF Design
Wednesday, October 18
12 P.M. - 1 P.M.
1 CM Credit

Tattoos, car-free living, dog parks, food trucks, bike sharing, pop-up spaces, storefront marijuana, farmers markets...Are these part of your community's plans? Cultural and generational shifts are driving changes in how we spend our time and money, and it's not just hipsters. Are your plans and codes keeping up? Find out why they should.

Join us at KZF Design (700 Broadway Street, Cincinnati) to hear Donnie Warner from Calfee Zoning talk about “The Hipster Overlay District”.

Parking Options:

Metered on-street parking
8th & Sycamore Parking Garage (1 to 2 hrs - $5)
685 Culvert Street ($6/day)
7th at Broadway Garage (1 to 1.5 hrs - $8)

Other Transportation Options:

Bus: Government Square (10 min walk)
Bus stops for routes 11, 12X, 40X, 67X are within a few blocks
Red Bike: A station is located across the street at 8th & Broadway

Credit: Kirsten Ulve